SELF-RELIANCE, joined to self-respect and self-control, are very sure guarantees to success in life. Every man is the architect of his own future, whether it be good or bad. If he will keepfall his evil appetites under strict self-control, having sufficient self-respect never to do a mean act—and have a heart to do any kind of work that may be set before him, there is no doubt but he will achieve a reasonable success in life.

The Clark County Democrat which was in days past one of Judge Hargis' firmest supporters now says: Judge Hargis has sent his last opinion to Frankfort. and reported:
"He has just left for the country on a vacation." I'll leave a note," said the man, and he sat down and wrote a few lines and took his departure. When he had been gone ten minutes the employer came out to read it, It read:
"Called to pay you that $500, but you were out. Am off for Tennessee. See you when I return in January. Tra-lai' to fling on his hat and reach the street; but it was too late, an hour's hard work, including a walk to one of the depots, failed to turn up the man who had money to leave instead of a hill to collect. The boy over there was looking very much cast down yesterday. One would have said that somebody had been swearing at him.
